UMC Names Vice Chancellor for Student Services and Enrollment

By Pam Holsinger Fuchs on Friday, June 10, 2005

The University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) has appointed Pamela Holsinger Fuchs as the interim vice chancellor for student services and enrollment management. Her duties will include overseeing admissions, financial aid, bookstore, study abroad, First Year Experience, student activities, service learning, student support services, and multicultural and international students. Holsinger Fuchs brings a great deal of experience with students into her new position. Prior to this time, she served as director of student activities and service learning at UMC.

“Everyone here is responsible for everyone here,” Holsinger Fuchs said, “whatever our role, we are here to support students, and it is my goal to make students feel totally supported while they are on this campus. That is part of my philosophy, and I will work with my staff to make that happen.”

Lisa Samuelson, the assistant director of residential life, will be taking over Holsinger Fuchs' responsibilities in student activities, and Lisa Loegering will oversee service learning on the campus. Holsinger Fuchs will be one of two vice chancellors on the campus, the other in academic affairs, and five directors of different academic and operational areas. She has been with UMC since 1986.
